

Policy & Procedure

Electronic Device & Internet Usage

Teacher and student responsibility

Each student is expected to take individual responsibility for his or her appropriate use of the electronic device and Internet. While all student use of the Internet is to be conducted under teacher supervision, teachers are not expected to monitor student use at every moment. Hence, teachers must exercise their own discretion and be sure that the internet is used when appropriate

